

Zane Martin
Franklin Main Financial Center Manager, First Tennessee Bank

Martin manages the sales of banking products in the Williamson County region to new and prospective clients through a team of Relationship/Financial Service representatives, with a concentration on building long-lasting, valued banking relationships.

A Williamson County resident since his days at Trinity Elementary School and graduation from Page High School, Martin holds a Bachelor's degree in Marketing and Finance from the University of Mississippi, as well as an MBA from Middle Tennessee State University. In 2010 he was the recipient of the GEM Award by First Tennessee; previously receiving the President's Award (2006 – 2010).

Martin's leadership activity, spanning the arenas of business and industry, professional, civic, and community volunteer, includes Next Generation Heritage Foundation, serving as Treasurer; Franklin Noon Rotary; Franklin Tomorrow, serving as Treasurer; and a member of the Board of Advisors of the Arts Council of Williamson County. Martin was one of three Rotarians to travel to Honduras for a week-long service project this year.

A visionary, Martin feels his Leadership Franklin experience will provide, "A better understanding of where I am from and the history of Franklin and Williamson County. Along those same lines I want to envision the challenges ahead so that the future leaders of tomorrow can be prepared to solve the challenges."

Martin feels that Franklin's public transportation system should continue to evolve to meet the needs of the growing population of the area.
